

Early Bird Toastmasters presents a morning of Tall Tales

<https://earlybird.toastmastersclubs.org>
Thursday at 7 AM, May 6, 2021,
on ZOOM at Meeting ID 451 259 286

In the opening self-introductions, members and guests called upon will be encouraged to make extravagant claims.

For Table Topics we will share a sequential story. We start the story off and then each speaker continues for one minute before passing it on to the next speaker.

We have room for as many as 10 Tellers of Tales. Guests are welcome. Some of our presenters are encouraged to embellish. Each promises what whatever they say will be true, and most of us already believe this.

We shall seek out a Guest General Evaluator. She will call for one-minute evaluations from the audience. Next our General Evaluator will evaluate our entire meeting, and her baseline will be extreme.

Facts should never be allowed to get in the way of a good story. There are points to make, lessons to teach, and audiences to entertain. We don't need no stinking facts. Everything we say is true.
